UP Villagers chop off noses of 2 for 'illicit relationship'

FAIZABAD: Villagers allegedly chopped off the noses of a man and a woman here, accusing them of having an affair, police said. The incident allegedly took place at Kand Pipra village in the Patraonga police station area of Faizabad on the intervening night of Monday and Tuesday. A police force has been deployed at the village to maintain peace between the Hindu and Muslim communities to which the two belonged, police said.

India set to evacuate citizens from Wuhan

AARTI TIKOO SINGH
New Delhi

India on Tuesday started the preparations for evacuating the Indian nationals trapped in Wuhan city, the epicentre of the novel coronavirus (2019-nCoV) epidemic, placed under a lockdown.

In a series of tweets, Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Raveesh Kumar said: "We have begun the process to prepare for evacuation of Indian nationals affected by the situation arising out of nCorona-2019 virus outbreak in Hubei Province. Our embassy in Beijing is working out the logistics and is in touch with the Chinese government and our nationals on this matter."

Over 500 Indian students are studying in colleges and universities of Wuhan city in Hubei province. However, a large number of them had departed for home just ahead of the outbreak of the 2019-nCoV.

Sources said the government was working with the Chinese authorities to make an assessment about the number of people stranded in Wuhan. Indian nationals have also been asked to submit their passport details to the embassy in Beijing, sources said. The Indian embassy in Beijing on social media has noted that some Indian nationals were not in possession of their passports because they have submitted them to the Chinese authorities for visa extension or work permit or other reasons.

633 people under observation in Kerala

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: A total of 633 people, who returned to Kerala from China in recent days, are under observation for possible exposure to the novel coronavirus, state Health Minister K K Shylaja said on Tuesday.

Of the 633, seven are under observation in isolation wards at different hospitals, according to officials.

"The situation in the state was under control but the state needs to be vigilant, the minister told reporters.

"A total of 633 people are under observation in the state. As of now everything is under control. But we need to remain vigilant until the World Health Organisation says its safe," the minister said.

She asked those who have returned from China or other affected areas like Nepal or Sri Lanka to approach the health department without any hesitation.

"Those who have returned from China should approach the health department and follow the instructions of the officials. It has been learnt that the particular virus will be inactive in the body for a few days initially. So it is better to stay under observation," the minister said.

There is nothing to panic, says Health Minister

NEW DELHI: Union Health Minister Dr Harsh Vardhan on Tuesday said there is nothing to panic as novel coronavirus has not come to India and government is in continuous talks with the China to bring back about 500 Indian nationals to home. This is being done as a preventive measure against the outbreak of deadly novel coronavirus (nCoV) outbreak in Wuhan, Hubei province of China where more than 2,000 cases have been reported and the virus has claimed over 80 lives so far.

"I request to all people of this country not to panic as novel coronavirus has not come to India. We are taking all preventive measures to keep our people safe. Anybody who is showing slight symptoms of flu is being kept under isolation," Dr Vardhan told ANI. All States have been directed to follow the instructions to be prepared.

Rajinikanth gets hurt while shooting for 'Man vs Wild'

AGENCIES
Bengaluru

Megastar Rajinikanth twisted his ankle while shooting for ace adventurer Bear Grylls's 'Man vs Wild' show at Bandipur Tiger Reserve on Tuesday, forest officials said.

"Rajinikanth lost his balance, twisted his ankle and suffered minor bruises to his hand below the elbow," a forest official said.

"The actor is okay now," he added.

Sources close to the actor told PTI that he left Chennai on Monday to Mysore for the shoot and is expected to complete it soon and return. The forest department has put a lot of conditions while permitting the shooting.

According to officials, it includes filming at their own risk and they are not allowed to use explosives and inflammable materials.

Rajinikanth is the second high profile figure to appear in Man Vs Wild after Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

The Principal Chief Conservator of Forests of Karnataka, Punati Sridhar, confirmed to PTI that Rajinikanth and Bear Grylls are in Bandipur and had valid permission to carry out shooting.

Assam govt urges ULFA chief Barua for peace talks

AGENCIES / Guwahati

The Assam government on Tuesday urged the United Liberation Front of Assam and its chief Paresh Barua to enter into a meaningful peace dialogue with it and the centre.

"I appeal to both Paresh Baruah and United Liberation Front of Assam (ULFA) to have a meaningful peace dialogue with both the government of Assam and the government of India, ending decade-old militant movement," state Finance Minister and Convenor of North-

ULFA chief Paresh Barua.

East Democratic Alliance Himanta Biswasarma told mediapersons here.

Biswasarma's offer to Barua came a day after the Centre inked a peace agreement with representatives of Bodo organisations, attempting to put an end to the decades-old Bodo insurgency based on the demand for carving out a separate state out of Assam.

Complimenting Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah for helping formalise the "historic accord", he said: "It will ensure autonomy of Bodoland and reaffirm territorial integrity of Assam, besides ensuring justice for both Bodo and non-Bodo people."

He said the Bodo Accord marks a new era of peace, progress and prosperity in Assam.

Kerala gay couple moves HC to legalise their marriage

AGENCIES / Kochi

A gay couple has moved the Kerala High Court, seeking to strike down certain provisions under the Special Marriage Act, 1954, which do not permit to get their marriage registered.

Considering the writ petition by the petitioners on Monday, the court has sought the views of Central and state governments on the matter. The petitioners, a business man and an IT professional had met each other in May 2018 and fallen in love. In September last year, they got married in a private ceremony. However, the religious authorities declined to solemnise the wedding and hence the couple decided to get their marriage registered under the Special Marriage Act, 1954, which does not recognise homosexual marriages.

In their plea, the gay couple stated that it was aggrieved by the provisions of the Special Marriage Act, 1954 whereby the law provided therein only permits a heterosexual couple to get married and a homosexual couple like them is denied equal access to the institution of marriage.

CRPF carries out checks on over 3 lakh personnel

AGENCIES
Gurgaon

The CRPF has carried out a mega audit of its over three lakh personnel to check for any possible "subversive" elements in the wake of a Jammu and Kashmir Police officer being caught with terrorists recently, the chief of the paramilitary force said here on Tuesday.

CRPF Director General (DG) A P Maheshwari said the incident involving Deputy Superintendent of Police Davinder Singh was "grave" and an "area of ex-extreme concern" for the security forces, adding that all should see that these things don't occur.

So it was "common sense" to carry out such an audit of its manpower, deployed as the lead force for counter-terrorist and anti-Naxal operations across the country, when any incident like this take place, he said. "If something happens somewhere, it is a case to revisit ourselves and that is what we have done. We have no doubts about our personnel," the CRPF chief said.

He added that DSP Davinder Singh being caught by JK Police along with terrorists was "a serious matter."
