

MISSING IN ACTION: Union minister has been away from Vijaypur and Budhni by-elections for which he was made a star campaigner

Scindia keeps away from canvassing for bypolls, rift with BJP apparent!

He shows anger for the first time in four and a half years

Our Staff Reporter
BHOPAL

Minister of communications Jyotiraditya Scindia displayed his anger several times when he was with the Congress. But he seems to be angry with the BJP for the first time.

by-elections.

Scindia is on good terms with the party's central leadership, but he is keeping away from the state unit.

He has not campaigned for the two candidates for the by-elections being held in the state.

Scindia is seen campaigning for the party in Assembly election in Maharashtra, but he has been away from Vijaypur and Budhni by-polls for which he was made a star campaigner, though.

Scindia was not present even when the party candidates were filing papers for the tuency. It has happened for the first time in four years that Scindia looks angry with the party.

According to sources, Scindia was opposed to admitting Congress legislator from Vijaypur Ramniwas Rawat into the party and giving him a ministerial berth.

For Scindia was against giving a cabinet berth to Rawat, he did not campaign for the candidate. Nevertheless, when Scindia was in the Congress, Rawat was considered to be close to him.

It was Scindia who played an important in appointing Rawat executive president of the party in MP.

When Scindia quit the Congress in 2020 and joined the BJP, he advised Rawat to take the ruling party membership. Scindia got angry because Rawat refused to resign from the Congress.

Afterwards, the rift between them grew. Even when Rawat joined the BJP, there was not interaction between them. According to sources, Scindia is angry because he has been ignored in the Gwalior area. In Gwalior-Chambal politics, the supporters of

Electioneering for Budhni, Vijaypur ends, polling tomorrow

BHOPAL : Electioneering for the bypolls in Budhni and Vijaypur came to an end on Monday. Polling for the two seats will take place on Wednesday.

Both the national parties campaigned with their all might on the last day. Chief Minister Mohan Yadav campaigned for the party candidate in Vijaypur. Union Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan held a few public meetings in Budhni on the last day of electioneering. In Budhni, the Congress has fielded Rajkumar Patel against BJP's Ramakant Bhargava. Congress candidate Mukesh Malhotra is pitted against Forest Minister Ramniwas Rawat in Vijaypur.

MP Congress president Jitu Patwari was very active in electioneering for the party candidates in both the constituencies.

The Congress has not won a single election under Patwari's leadership, so he pulled out all the stops for the party's victory.

Scindia and the veteran BJP leaders are not sailing on the same boat. This is how the chasm between Scindia and the state BJP unit has grown.

Six-week climate action initiative ends at Choithram College of Nursing

Our Staff Reporter
INDORE

Students of Choithram College of Nursing led a transformative six-week climate action project under the guidance of Prof Sheereja Vijayan and Prof Shweta Pattnaik.

Launched on September 30, the global initiative aimed to raise awareness and drive sustainability efforts in over 149 countries.

Activities included a cleanliness drive promoting zero-plastic practices during Navratri, visiting Ralamandal Wildlife Sanctuary, seed-ball dispersal and tree plantation.

The project emphasised community participation, addressing local climate change challenges like rising temperatures and water scarcity in Indore.

The initiative culminated with a press release in which students shared their experiences, highlighting the importance of collective action for a sustainable future.

Free legal aid camp concludes

Indore International Law College Solsinda successfully organised a free 'Legal Aid Camp' in the village of Rajoda, aimed at raising awareness about legal aid among local residents. Principal Dr Neha Sharma Chaudhary highlighted the importance of the programme, which featured expert speakers including Mithilesh Deharia, District Legal Officer and Ashirwad Chaurasia, Chief Legal and Defence Counsel from the Indore High Court Bench.

The event commenced with a tree plantation ceremony, symbolically inaugurating the legal aid camp. Dr Puneet Kumar Dwivedi, the group director of the institute, welcomed guests and emphasised the role of free legal aid in empowering marginalised communities. He assured attendees that similar camps would be organised in nearby villages in the future.

During the camp, Mithilesh Deharia provided free legal advice and informed villagers about various legal aid services available through the District, State, and National Legal Aid Authorities. Chaurasia stressed the need for free legal assistance in the district and encouraged villagers to utilise the Legal Aid Centre at Indore High Court. The event attracted hundreds of villagers seeking legal assistance, with the camp coordinated by Advocate Swapnil Tiwari and Dr Atul Ladna under the leadership of Dr Chaudhary and various dedicated sub-committees.

Police yet to disclose 'bhasma aarti permission' scam

UJJAIN: People behind the 'bhasma aarti permission' scam are being caught in Mahakaleshwar temple at regular intervals. Yet the inside story is not being allowed to come out. In a week, the temple administrator himself has exposed two accused who have been appointed for security.

When the temple committee administrator searched the CCTV, shocking truth came to light. An employee named Sonu Tilve came forward. Five people had taken permission for Bhasma aarti. Sonu allowed 13 persons to enter. So a case of misconduct was filed and he was suspended. It has not been revealed yet how much money was given by additional devotees. Similarly, Lovejit, an employee of Krystal Private Securities Company took Rs 16,500 from a family from Bengaluru for Bhasma aarti darshan. He was also caught. Mahakal police registered a case against him. Temple administrator Ganesh Dhakad said that Lovejit was handed over to Mahakal police. Police should interrogate him. The second accused Sonu Tilve is an employee of the temple committee. He has been suspended and an inquiry has been initiated. After the report comes out, it will be known how much money he took, Dhakad said.

4-year-old boy drowns

FP News Service
UJJAIN

There was a family programme at Shubhratn Garden in Barnagar's Ingoria. One Arun Singh went to attend the programme with his wife and 4-year-old son Shivam. Shivam was playing with other kids. During that time, he fell into the chamber without a lid. When he did not return to his mother for a long time, a search was conducted.

For about 20 minutes, the family kept searching for the child. When he was not found, the CCTV footage of the garden was checked in which the child was seen falling into the chamber. He was immediately rescued from the chamber and taken to hospital where the doctor declared him brought dead. Ingoria police registered a case and sent the body to the District Hospital for post-mortem.
