Criteria for determining materiality and disclosure

Events specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations from time to time are deemed to be material events and the Company shall make disclosure of such events to the stock exchanges within the time as provided in the Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations and mentioned in this Policy.

The Company shall make disclosure of events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations from time to time, based on application of the guidelines for materiality, as specified hereinafter.

The Company shall consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of events/information:

- (a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- (c) the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - (i) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - (ii) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (iii) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company

In case the Company has not prepared consolidated financial statements due to non-applicability of such requirement in terms of the Act, the above threshold limits may be determined on the basis of standalone financial statements.

In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of the Company, the event or information is considered material either at its own or based on the information/details provided by the Key Managerial Personnel authorised for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information and making disclosures to stock exchanges.

Any other information or event including but not limited to viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and any information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the shareholders of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such shares will be disclosed to the stock exchanges within the timeline mentioned in this Policy.

The Company will make adequate disclosure of an event or information available with it to the stock exchanges, which has not been indicated above, but which may have material effect on it based on above criteria of materiality.

The Company shall, with respect to disclosures of event or information referred to above, make disclosures updating material developments on a regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations.

The Company shall also disclose all events or information with respect to its subsidiaries which are 'material' for the Company based on application of the aforesaid criteria for materiality.

Materiality has to be determined on a case-to-case basis depending on facts and circumstances relating to the information or event.

Timeline for disclosure of event or information to stock exchanges:

The Company shall disclose to the stock exchanges all events or information, which are material as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:

- (i) thirty minutes from the closure of the meeting of the Board of Directors in which the decision pertaining to the event or information has been taken;
- (ii) twelve hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is emanating from within the Company;
- (iii) twenty four hours from the occurrence of the event or information, in case the event or information is not emanating from within the Company.

The disclosure with respect to events for which timelines have been specified in Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations, shall be made within such timelines.

The Company shall endeavor to disclosure the event or information within the timelines as mentioned above. However, in case the disclosure is made after the timelines, the Company will, along with such disclosure provide the explanation for the delay.

Authorisation to disclose

The Board will authorize one or more Key Managerial Personnel for the purpose of determining materiality of an event or information and for the purpose of making disclosures to the stock exchanges.

Any employees of the Company who is aware of an event or information, which may be a material event or information in terms of this Policy shall inform the same to the authorised Key Managerial Personnel, for determining the materiality of the said event or information and for making the necessary disclosures to the stock exchanges.

The contact details of the Key Managerial Personnel, so authorised will be disclosed to the stock exchanges and will be uploaded on the website of the Company.

Disclosure

This Policy shall be uploaded on the website of the Company and all the disclosures made to stock exchanges under this Policy shall also be disclosed on the website of the Company.

Amendment

This Policy shall be reviewed by the Board of Directors as and when any changes are to be incorporated in the Policy due to change in law, regulations or as may be felt appropriate by them. Any changes/amendment/modification in the Policy will be in writing and approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Interpretation

In case of any subsequent changes in the provisions of the Act or Rules made thereunder, Listing Regulations or any other applicable law which makes any of the provision in this Policy inconsistent with the Act, Rules, Listing Regulations or any other applicable law, then the provision of the Act, Rules, Listing Regulations or applicable law would prevail over this Policy and the provision in the Policy would be modified in due course to make it consistent with law.
